FOREWORD

THOUGH our high ambitions for an annual this year were not realized, we have tried to give in printed form, a book which, even though it is not an annual, will replace the BAGPIPE in the hearts of the students. This book, arranged to carry the burden of an annual, has been made possible by the contributions of the student body in expressing their desire for less expensive yearbook.

If in the pages of this book, lasting memories are recorded; if it has fulfilled the desire of the student body, and if it recalls to your minds in future days thoughts of your first Alma Mater, then our fondest hopes have been fulfilled, and our efforts been repaid many times.

DEDICATION

IN the realm of character that shining point called leadership stands out from all the rest, a guiding star to those who are following. In the life of our President we have found that wonderful trait, and in the light of that personality have we been guided thus far upon our college careers.

In recognition of his service to Presbyterian Junior College, and as a mark of appreciation for his efforts toward the advancement of our lives, We, the Senior Class, dedicate this, the first volume of the Wee Bagpipe, to our Leader and President,

REV. PHILIP CARY ADAMS

HISTORY OF P. J. C.

INTRODUCTION

BECAUSE of the struggles of the Board of Trustees and Faculty, our school has lived and flourished through ten years of work. Though the depression has been a great hold-back, and the financial end was in dire need of replenishing, our beloved Alma Mater has sent many students to higher schools of learning; and with the splendid enrollment expected for next year, we are certain that time will bring forth a bigger and better school for those boys who feel the need of a Junior College.

HISTORY

On September 28, 1927, the Trustees of the Elsie High School presented an overture to the Presbytery of Fayetteville, asking for authority to set in motion an effort to establish a Junior College in connection with that institution. Subsequent events indicate that this was but the crystallization of a general feeling that there was a real need in this part of the Lord's vineyard for such an institution. The Presbytery gave its hearty approval of the idea contained in the overture in the following resolution: "That we recognize the need of a Junior College (for men) and recommend that such an institution be established as soon as possible." A committee of five was appointed to investigate the whole question as to cost, location and the possibility of securing the co-operation of other Presbyteries in the enterprise. A similar committee was appointed by Mecklenburg Presbytery.

These committees held a two-day joint conference studying the whole question and visiting the prospective locations for the proposed school. In their report they endorsed the plan to establish a Junior College for men, recommended that an offer from the owners of the Carolina property at Maxton be accepted and the institution located there, and called for a joint meeting of their respective Presbyteries to hear and study the report.

The two Presbyteries met in joint session in the auditorium of the Carolina College, Maxton, November 29, 1927. After a careful consideration of the report of the committee, the following resolution was adopted: "Resolved, That this joint conference of the Presbyteries of Fayetteville and Mecklenburg, recommend to the Synod of North Carolina the establishment of a Junior College for Men, and that Synod accept the generous offer of the Methodist Conference of North Carolina of the Carolina College property at Maxton for that purpose."

The Synod of North Carolina met in special session in the auditorium of the Carolina College on February 21, 1928, to consider these recommendations. After a full discussion of the whole question the following resolution was adopted: "That it is the sense of this body that the Synod of North Carolina should establish within its bounds a Junior College for Men." The offer of the Methodist Conference of North Carolina was accepted and the following resolution creating the Presbyterian Junior College for Men was adopted:

NOW THEREFORE, be it resolved:

First: That the said Synod of North Carolina, now in special session in Carolina College auditorium, Maxton, N. C., on this 21st day of February, 1928, in response to said call, and said call having been found in due form, and notice of same having been mailed more than fifteen days prior to this date, does hereby accept the offer of the Trustees of Carolina College to transfer their plant in the town of Maxton to such corporate body as may be hereinafter named and provided for, upon the payment of the sum of approximately $35,000, said property to be used and operated as a Junior College for men, under the beneficial ownership and control of the Synod of North Carolina, Presbyterian Church in the United States, it being understood that said plant consists of about 18½ acres of land upon which is located an administration building, dormitory, president's home and other smaller buildings, together with all equipment as scheduled in their inventory; that a Board of Trustees consisting of 18 members, one Trustee from each Presbytery and nine Trustees at large, shall be elected at this meeting; that said Trustees shall be divided into three classes, whose terms shall expire as follows: Six in the Fall of 1929; six in the Fall of 1930, and six in the Fall of 1931; and all vacancies in the Board of Trustees caused by expiration of terms, resignation or otherwise, shall be filled by the Synod; that said Trustees, when elected, are hereby authorized, empowered and directed to procure a charter under the laws of the State of North Carolina, for the "Presbyterian Junior College for Men," which shall be the name of the institution, and which shall be owned by the Synod of North Carolina, and controlled by it through the Board of Trustees; and said Trustees shall acquire a good and perfect title to the aforesaid property, without limitations or restrictions, taking title in the name of the Presbyterian Junior College for Men; that said Trustees are further authorized to provide for the payment of the amount necessary to be paid for said property, such funds to be obtained by them in such manner as they may deem expedient, whether by solicitation from individuals, or by negotiating loans upon the property itself as security, and to execute and deliver any and all notes, bonds, deeds of trust, or other legal instruments for such sums as may be necessary to complete the transfer of the property hereinbefore authorized; that it is contemplated by the Synod, and power and authority are hereby granted to said Trustees to initiate and carry forward plans to the end that a Junior College for Men shall eventually be opened, established and operated at Maxton, under the control of the Synod of North Carolina, which shall be for the glory of God and a blessing to mankind; that said Board of Trustees shall make a written report to the next stated meeting of the Synod.

THE Student Government plan has proved most successful this year. With the co-operation of the faculty and the Student Body, we have given the Honor System a thorough try out, and it has proved most successful. The decision of the Student Council in all matters of discipline has met with the approval of all, and through the splendid co-operation of the Student Body, the task of discipline has, for the most part been relatively light.

FOOTBALL TEAM

WITH only six letter men back on the squad, Coach Hand began work immediately after school opened. Due to the lack of players he was handicapped in forming a line, but the back field work was excellent. The team encountered all teams in the conference and Davidson Freshmen. Even though the playing does not show so well in points, the score in sportsmanship is one seldom excelled. The freshmen contributed strongly to the team, proving that we should have an excellent team next season. Home-coming game was played late in October with Brevard as the opposing team; great work was shown in passes and runs by both teams, and Brevard carried the score with 18 to 6.

BASKETBALL TEAM

THE Basketball Team this year had a very successful season. With six letter men returning, and with a promising group of Freshmen, Coach Hand trained these men into an excellent team, a team which showed the highest example of sportsmanship. The team, led by those letter men, encountered many strong opponents and played admirably. The boys always played "head's-up" ball. Entering the Junior College tournament at Davidson, we lost to one of the strongest teams in the conference. Some of the best players being Freshmen, an indication is seen that a stronger team will be developed next year.

BASEBALL TEAM

BEGINNING practice under terrible odds, the boys show splendid spirit; few games have been played as yet, but the future is bright. With new suits, white and red, the boys present a colorful specimen of real sports. While under handicaps from all sides, the team plays with wonderful skill, and endurance. Many of the players are First Year men, and some have never played baseball before, but in spite of this, we are expecting great things from the Coach and his baseball men.

INTRAMURALS

BECAUSE of the lack of equipment, many of the minor sports had to be cut from our program this year, however, with teams representing Commercial Class, Freshmen Class, and Sophomore Class, our interest was upheld throughout Basketball season; and since warm weather, a Tennis tournament is being staged. Track news is scarce, except that many of the boys are planning to enter the Conference tournament at Davidson, representing P. J. C. With this being the first year intramurals have been tried here, amazing interest is shown, and great advantages are shown for future work in this line of athletics.

Boxing was removed entirely from our program, thus causing much more interest in other parts of the athletic program.

Though we lose many of our best players in all the intramurals at the close of this session, we are hoping for the best in years to come, for through this program we have found much enjoyment, and new material for our teams.

THE MONOGRAM CLUB

THE members of this club have, either last year or this, made a well deserved letter in some form of athletics. This is an honorary society for our athletes, and under the supervision of Coach C. H. Hand, Jr. It is through this organization that many of our dances are sponsored. Though this club this year may be smaller than in years past, it has been most thorough in all its duties.
